

DPS KARNAL HOSTED SAHODAYA INTER SCHOOL POSTER MAKING COMPETITION

In the lush green canvas of Delhi Public School Karnal, Sahodya Inter School Poster Making was organized on 20 January 2018. In total 78 students of 26 different schools across the city showcased their immense creativity and made the contest vivid and memorable.

Under the aegis of Sahodya School Complex every school gets a sheer opportunity to bloom their potentiality via boundless activities and competitions. This bout was conducted for the students of classes III-XII which was further split into three categories i.e. Classes III-V were in the junior category while Classes VI-VIII and Classes IX-XII in senior category. All the three groups exhibited their enormous artistic skills by sprinkling their outstanding talent and realistic approach towards life through different topics like : Ancient India/ India of my dreams, World without tree, Yoga -A way to healthy life, Mobile addiction in youth, My Haryana My Pride, Today's wastage tomorrow's shortage, Education and tourism move hand in hand, India's overpopulation-strength or weakness for world, Cyber Crime and Cyber Wellness, Vision of peace and The world in 2050 .

The students of the host school welcomed honourable Chief Guest Mr Rajan Lamba, President , Sahodya School Complex Karnal & Principal, Tagore Baal Niketan Karnal through their mesmerizing orchestra presentation. The Principal, Ms Meenu Arora expressed her heartfelt gratitude by presenting a sapling to the Chief Guest. She thanked the dignitaries as well as judges of the competition for barging their valuable time and adding charisma by their benign presence.

The commencement of the competition was laced with a divine aura through Jazz Dance. The host team students showcased a superb extravaganza focusing on physical fitness and reviving the roots of Indian culture through Yoga.

The competition was adjudged by two learned and efficient personalities Ms. Shashi Sharma (Member of Haryana Government Distt. Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission) and Mr Rajeev Ohri (Head of Arts Department, Rahgiri & working in LIC) whose gigantic experience and impartial judgment gave this bout an unforgettable impression. In Category A Shreya of Delhi Public School Karnal, in Category B Rhytham Bindal of Prakash Public School & in Category C Vishal Dua of Dyal Singh Public School, Sec. 7 & Bhanavi of Delhi Public School Karnal proved their mettle by securing the crowning trophy while Sachleen of Guru Harkishan Public School in Category A and Divyansh of Pratap Public School Karnal, Sec-6 & Jasmeet of Guru Harkishan Public School in Category B and Shweta of Pratap Public School Karnal, Sec-6 in Category C bagged second position. Diya of Pratap Public School Karnal, Sec-6 in Category A and Priya Saini of DAV Centenary Public School Indri & Ridhi Baid of Delhi Public School Karnal in Category B and Rakshita Lather of Prakash Public School Karnal in Category C brought the laurels to their respective school by achieving third position.

Mayuri of Tagore Bal Niketan & Kashish of Dyal Singh Public School in Category A ,Bharti of Dyal Singh Public School, Sec. 7 & Sameer of Pratap Public School, Taraori in Category B and Aditya of DAV Public School Madhuban in Category C got consolation prizes . The piece of work of these winners was indeed a masterpiece in itself which depicted their broader and progressive attitude towards the upcoming future.

The piece of work of these winners was indeed a masterpiece in itself which depicted their broader and progressive attitude towards the upcoming future.

Chief Guest Mr Rajan Lamba appreciated the versatility of the budding artists and accoladed the tireless efforts of the host school to make this event a big success. In remembrance of his Late father Chief Guest Mr Rajan Lamba announced cash prizes of Rs. 1000, 700 and 500 for the students who stood first, second and third in the category A, B and C and Rs. 200 for 6 students who got consolation prizes. Cash prize of Rs.1000 was also given to Dhriti of DPS Karnal for her exuberant Hindi poem recitation.

The Principal, Ms Meenu Arora acknowledged the winners through certificates and trophies and encouraged the participants through participation certificates. She expressed her bountiful thanks to all the participating schools to convert this competition as a milestone in the history of Sahodya School Complex.